

CLUBS & ASSOCIATIONS

Waste Disposal Household waste should be put in the black wheelie bins and left at the boundary of your property. These are emptied fortnightly on a Wednesday.

Food waste should be wrapped in newspaper or starch bags, these are collected weekly from the brown bucket.

Green Bins or orange sacks are provided for recycling newspapers, magazines, telephone directories, yellow pages, thin card, small pieces of corrugated cardboard, plastic and tins (not bottles). Sacks should be tied. These will be collected on alternate Wednesdays (on the week that your household waste is not collected).

Green bags are provided, for garden waste, these are also collected fortnightly, the same week as the recyclables.

Larger items can be taken to the Tidy Tip, off Abbey Lane, Ampthill. (off the Ampthill By Pass) 0300 300 8000

Bottle banks and Clothing recycling bins are provided in St. Francis way, Shefford and opposite the Council offices at Chicksands.
